Gentlemen residing in Sydney for an indefinite period, who shall satisfy the Committee that their residence in the city is temporary and precarious and liable to be terminated by the occurrence of circumstances beyond their control, may be elected as RESIDENT PRIVILEGED MEMBERS without payment of entrance fee, but subject to an annual subscription fee of $40.00, payable quarterly, and also subject to the constitution and regulations of the Club generally; and, after having paid their quarterly subscription in advance, but in no case before, they will be admitted to all the privileges of the Club except that of being members of the Committees or voting in any way in the affairs of the Club.

JUNIOR MEMBERSHIP may also be granted by the Committee to gentlemen of the age from 18 to 22 without payment of an entrance fee, but subject to the payment in advance of an annual subscription fee of $15.00, and subject also to the like restrictions as hereinbefore set forth. But when any junior member arrives at the age of 22 he shall pay the regular entrance fee and become a full member (if he is not qualified for privileged membership) or he shall cease to be a member of the Club of any kind. In proposing any person for junior membership the proposer shall state his age and birthday.

Should a new member not pay his entrance fee, and first quarter's subscription within three months from his admission into the Club, the Secretary shall report the circumstances to the Executive Committee who shall cause his name to be erased from the list of members, unless he can justify the delay to the satisfaction of the Executive Committee. Immediately after the conclusion of each quarter all members in arrears for subscriptions for such quarter shall be notified and their names posted in the Club. If such arrears are not paid within TWO WEEKS from the date of such posting the persons so posted shall cease to be members of the Club, and the Secretary-Treasurer shall give such persons notice to that effect in writing, provided, however, that the Executive Committee shall have power to reinstate such persons into membership of the Club if good cause is shown. a Special General Meeting, giving fourteen days' notice thereof; and in the event of it being voted at that meeting, that the name of any member should be removed from the Club, then in that case the subscription of such member for the current quarter shall be returned, and he shall cease to belong to the Club. But at such general meeting it may be voted that the offending member be suspended or fined, and in the event of his not paying his fine within the time to be fixed, that he be suspended or expelled; or the meeting may pass such other resolution as they may deem suitable with the provision that failure to obey the same may be punished by fine, suspension or expulsion. These bye-laws may be amended or altered and new bye-laws may be passed at any Annual Meeting or at any Special General Meeting of the Club, called for that purpose. But no such amendment, alteration or addition shall be made unless the text of such amendment, alteration or addition has been posted in the Club for at least one month before the Annual Meeting or the Special General Meeting called for considering the same.
